

JAN 6, 2021 WAS THE TIME TO OCCUPY D.C.

Right now, however, it sure as Hades is NOT (read everything below).
Maybe later.

Patience is virtue as they say.

If anyone comes up with a way to correct the issues confronting real

QUESTION

IF you were a tin pot dictator with a way to strategically nuke D.C. wouldn't this have been the perfect time to try it; while 25,000+ unprotected military, untold numbers of emergency responders and most of the dip shit supporters behind Biden, Harris and the MLD swamp rats were all in one place ??? That shows you just how fucking stupid the MLDs and their so called generals in the USCENTCOM actually are.

Hard to believe the voters have, once again, put the MLDs in charge of things.

Keep your chin up, keep your eyes open, and keep the MLDs from brainwashing you.

It won't be over until the fat lady sings, as they say.
